

Hello guys.

It's Mother's Day this Sunday and Mother Juliet has sent your grown-ups a service booklet for you to read through together. Yes the stories about me are true!

Why don't you ask your grown-ups about their favourite 'Mum' stories. (It could be about being a Mum or about their Mum!)

Last week the children who managed to come to Sunday School created these beautiful Mother's Day cards ready for their Mums this Sunday.

Here's the link if you weren't able to come. These pop-up cards are great, and they don't just have to be for Mother's Day. Maybe your grown-ups know someone who has to stay home at the moment and would like a card like this through the door to cheer them up?

I've also put together some Mother's Day vouchers for you to share with Mum. The last one is blank, and that means you can write something in that you know is important to your Mum in particular.

Keep smiling, Sunday School. Your grown-ups can contact me any time on Whatsapp or text. (If they haven't got my number, they can ask Mother Juliet for it. Her contact details are on the service sheet.

May God keep you safe and healthy and happy. Amen
